DCI SECURITY COMMITTEE
MONTHLY ACTIVITIES REPORT

JUNE 1980

25X1 1. A Committee staff member has been assigned concurrent duty as security consultant to COMIREX. In that capacity he provides security advice and guidance on matters of COMIREX concern. He also serves as liaison between the staffs of the two committees on matters of joint security interest. As COMIREX's security consultant, he has joined that committee's ad hoc Structure Review Group to assist in assessing the responsiveness to Community needs of COMIREX sub-elements. ☐

2. The Committee staff member who serves concurrently as security officer for the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court completed the required annual security audit of court quarters and facilities. The wholly satisfactory results showed that the court's activities have been conducted in a thoroughly secure manner. ☐ 25X1

3. The Committee received and was briefed on a report presenting the results of a survey of background investigations adjudicated by Intelligence Community agencies over a four month period in 1978-79. A total of 5,204 cases were examined to evaluate the productivity of sources and of various periods of coverage in background investigations. Adverse data was developed in 1,261 cases, and 254 of those were resolved against the subjects. The report will serve as the basis for recommendations on investigative scope in the Community. ☐ 25X1

4. A Committee prepared policy guidance paper on marking material provided the Congress was signed by the DCI. This specifies that SCI material being prepared for release to Congress shall display all appropriate code-words, project indicators or channel markings, and that ☐ 25X1 releasing agencies ensure that Members' personal staff and Congressional committee staff have clearances and SCI access authorizations appropriate for receipt of the material involved. It also bans use of the term "sensitive" as a substitute for or addition to SCI indicators or DCID 1/7 control markings. ☐

5. The Committee approved a revision of the listing of countries in which travel or assignment is of Community security concern. Advance notice is required of planned travel to such countries, and a defensive security briefing is a prerequisite for going. ☐

25X1

6. A Committee staff member briefed attendees at a Community counterintelligence conference on counterintelligence aspects of the security program for U.S. facilities in Moscow. ☐

25X1

7. A committee staff member held a series of meetings with representatives of Justice and NSA to discuss proposed guidelines for appeals procedures as an annex to DCID 1/14. ☐

25X1

8. The Acting Chairman of the Investigative Standards Working Group attended an interagency task force meeting to consider a preliminary report on a proposed system for designating the sensitivity of positions and activities in the U.S. Government. Another meeting is scheduled for 28 July 1980. As requested by the task force chairman, copies of the ISWG Personnel Security Survey were presented to task force members and its contents were highlighted. ☐

9. A task force of the Security Awareness Working Group met several times during June to develop Intelligence Community presentations on the hostile threat, ☐ and the technical penetration threat. ☐
